Saturday Night

I have been downtown this evening and am tired out. This morning was spent in the delightful task of writing a freshman composition.

This very kind indeed of you to send the transcript, and say I noticed the report from the class. This I believe was the first one I have seen for some time is Carrie Still reporter? Yes, Librarian too! It is very nice to be popular, but in my case I find that it takes a great deal of time. Last night I made a great speech against Congress granting ship subsidies. I was out too. After this most remarkable speech, I was elected orator for next month. Compliment me by coming over.
