Dr. Stewart W. McClelland,
Pres., L. M. U.,
Harrogate, TENN.

Dear Stewart::

The long grind is ended, and we are sending you in three cartons 10 FALS. In Box No. 1 are Nos. 9 11 12 18 19 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29; In Box 2 are Nos. 30 31 32 33 34 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48; In Box 3 are Nos. 57 58 59 64 65 66 67.

And you will be wondering where you will put them, and find you'll need another section of bookcase.

Gerald's will go into the mail on Monday, and with 5 for Hy Pratt, my debts will have been paid in part.

WE trust these 3 boxes will come to you in good shape. Don't forget, these are war babies, put together with all kinds of paper, boards, etc. The prints are as good as in the earlier editions. In the stress of war worries, these were made, and with them go OUR love, and wishes that you will enjoy them ever.

Ever sincerely yours,

Doris
