

1860

Prospectus for book of poems "War Flowers"

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/mss-ross-papers>

Recommended Citation

Emmett L. Ross papers, Special Collections Department, Mississippi State University

This Document is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscripts Division at Scholars Junction. It has been accepted for inclusion in Emmett L. Ross Papers by an authorized administrator of Scholars Junction. For more information, please contact scholcomm@msstate.libanswers.com.

PROSPECTUS

For the Publication of a Book of Poems, written during the War, by a Soldier of the Confederate States Army, entitled "War Flowers."

These Poems were written in the camp, on the line of battle, in the trenches, on the bivouac and in garrison, and are illustrative of different phases and events of the war. The book will also contain, by request, an original burlesque tragedy which has been performed at Resaca, Dalton, Steven's Mills, Ga., Florence, Ala., Columbus, Miss., and various other places, in the presence of Gens. Jos. E. Johnston, J. B. Hood, W. J. Hardee, and the whole Army of Tennessee.

The book is to be done up and bound in superior style, and is to comprise about 100 pages.

Owing to the high price of material the author has been obliged to put the price of subscription at $2 00 a copy

The subscribers will confer a favor by paying in advance, as the money is needed to meet the expenses of publication.
