Dearest Mother;

Just thought I would try and write you a word or two while I can steal a little time as there is no one here at the store but Jimmie and myself and it is raining ninety to nothing just a flood is all I was here by myself I thought as we close every Wednesday afternoon but I thought I would come back and work as I wanted to finish or try to at least getting My trial balance. So just as the terrible cloud came up Jimmie came walking in I sure was glad to see him too however I didn't know there was a soul in the store but just me. so the lights went off and therefore I had to quit work as I have to work under alight all day long and its kindly trying on your eyes too.

Well I'll now try to tell you about me getting back Sunday Night We made it just fine not abit of trouble I just got so sleepy once or twice I could'nt hardly hold my eyes open. We came by Lexington and Tehula the best roads my,my. gravel you know and believe John F did some driving too but still he said he was'nt driving fast but if he had have been by himself he would'nt have been that long coming. He solid drives though. Gosh I dont know how far it is down here the way he came but I do know I thought we would never get here and drove it in little over a hour too for he did'nt fool about driving thought he was right nice about ithe said he would'nt charge me anything but I told him no I did'nt want Him to bring me down for nothing and a bad night too. and too I know How it is to get gasolene to so he said well Eva just the gas then so I ask him how much and he said 1.25 I said I knew it was more than that so I gave him 1.50

Well just thought I would write a few lines will go. will write you all again .

Lots of love,
Eva.
