December 10th. 3.

Mr. W. A. Broughton,

Itka, Miss.

My dear Broughton:-

Your letter of yesterday inclosing money order for $45.45, was received this morning, and I am much obliged. Just collect the other amounts when you can, and send it to me at your convenience.

Do whatever you can with the peaches and I shall be satisfied with any arrangement you make.

You have my permission to cut the tree in the bottom on the Linton land, and to use the timber just as you wish. I hope our friends you name in your letter who you say will cut the tree will all be present, and that you will find honey enough to sweeten all the Peaches they have, but if the honey should prove to be a little short I hope they will not throw the Peaches away, but will try to worry enough of it down to make them so merry that they will not miss the honey.

Your friend,
