Gen. S. D. Lee, President

Dear Sir: Your letter referring to the grade of Student Smith just received. After seeing you yesterday I made out the grade card and handed in same to the office without waiting for the letter just received.

Allow me say most earnestly that I have not felt any indifference to your suggestions or directions at any time but on the contrary I have recently redoubled my efforts to comply with your wishes and if I have failed in any instance certainly it was not caused by any lack of consideration for your instructions expressed or implied. Of late especially I have made every effort in my power to cooperate with my associates on the College grounds and believed that I was successful in the attempt.

Some honest differences of opinion have occurred between you, as president, and myself but in no case have I wished to overrule your opinion and substitute mine instead. On the contrary I tried to profit by the discussions arising and be guided in such cases by your judgment - not mine. Believe me

Sincerely and Respy-

J. H. Connell.
