General S. D. LEE, President.

Agricultural College, Miss. March 9 1892

Prof. L. H. Connel

My Dear Sir

I enclose a report of Mr. W. A. Smith which has been delayed two weeks awaiting your action, & which has been officially brought to my attention 3 or 4 times by the President. - I direct that you give the matter your immediate attention & not further delay the work of the College in another department -

It is a matter of surprise and regret, that the President, has in almost every instance, in which he comes in contact with you, had to resort to correspondence to get you to perform duties, as he sees them - You meet on such occasions with indifference & I can see no effort to cooperate or lend his wishes, even after such correspondence -

Unless I can get more prompt action on your part, and see some effort to work in harmony with the other departments of the College, it will be my painful duty, instead of writing you direct, to report to the Executive Committee - so they may judge between us, and act so the College may not be injured.

With kind wishes,

Yours truly
