December 15th. 1893.

Dear Mrs. McCoy:-

Your letter of the 11th. inst. did not reach me until last evening, and I could not write until this morning.

I am so frequently called upon for financial assistance that it is almost impossible to respond, but I cannot let you lose your home, and send you herewith the amount to pay your taxes. I am too busy to get a money order, or to write at length, so I must risk the money by mail. You can send me such evidence of your indebtedness as you may desire and pay me when you can.

Excuse haste, for I am pressed for time.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Georgia Davis McCoy,

Fayette, Miss.
