Dear Sir Mr. Cushman wishes to exchange A. M. Blair's notes for his I am not acquainted with Blair's situation; I therefore leave it with you to do as you would for your self in the matter; remembering that I hold the land bound as security till the money is made. Cushman says a Mr. Sprigly wishes to purchase 2 Eighths of the land I sold him; you are here by authorised, to make a little bond to Sprigly in my name, and give it my bond to Cushman for the 2 Eighths provided he will make his notes payable to me, so as to meet Cushman's first payment. & the balance I will give him. I am willing to give or make such arrangements with them as will procure their first payment this season & I am willing to wait with them for their second payment. If Sprigly wishes a deed to the land I will give such security as you are satisfied with I will make him a deed forthwith

Very respectfully
