Mr John Stennis Feb-21st-48
Washington D.C.

Dear John:

I have just read your questions & answers to Senator Ferguson regarding the proposed Anti Smuck bill. I want to Congratulate you on the stand I knew you would take.

I also listened to your speech at Jackson at College meeting of Democrats by Gov-Wright. And I thought it was good but not strong enough for a truly born KKKer (Blatant boy). Keep at it. We are with you best regards to family

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

I appreciate very much your encouraging letter of February 21st and am grateful to you for taking time to write and for your counsel and advice. It seems that I got up here just in time for the start of the second Civil War. It all looks mighty bad now and the prospects of blocking this legislation this spring look none too good now. I think the sentiment in Mississippi is doing some good here.

Let me hear from you from time to time as I shall be interested in your advice and suggestions.

With best wishes, I am

Your friend,

U. S. S.
