Dear Sir,
 I forgot to mention in a letter I sent you this morning that Julia has ordered the picture of you, like the one I have, as you said you wished one.
 I think it is excellent and very sweet, and

You will like it:-

I shall get Fred to send it to Mr Amelio Care at the Legation so you will find it there when you go to London - It will cost 50 florins - about 20 dollars.
I'll pay the artist as she is going away, and then I'll send the bill to you. later - I don't know when you are going to London. You must tell me that and also your address there - You must ask for the package - at the "Legation" don't forget - Do let us hear all you are doing.

I will enjoy the drawing. I did say much though it is not quite so brilliant as this Court is with the Hungarian and Bohemian splendors — I do hope the Queen will be pleased — Write all about it Mittie wants to see you in London. I hope
