TO THE VOTERS OF CHICKASAW COUNTY:

Gentlemen, you will be called upon Tuesday, November 7th to vote to ratify or reject three laws passed by our last Legislature, which will appear on the ticket in the following manner:

- 1st. The One Quart Every Fifteen Days Law.
- 2nd. The Anti-Advertising Law.
- 3rd. The Fish and Game Law.

The first two laws, the Liquor Laws, are the best laws ever placed upon our Statute Books, and should be ratified by all means. The best interests of our State, County, and Home demand that we ratify these laws. It will mean saving of thousands of dollars to our Home and State, besides the saving of many a heart-ache that naturally follows the excessive use of liquor.

As a MAN, as a FATHER, and as a CITIZEN, we urge upon you the importance of these two laws, and ask you, in the name of all that is near and dear to you to go to the polls on November the 7th and vote to ratify these laws.

J. W. HILL, Chairman Prohibition Committee.
