

9-29-1913

Letter to J. D. Banks

Mims Williams

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/mss-williams-papers>

Recommended Citation

Williams, Mims, "Letter to J. D. Banks" (1913). Daniel Williams Papers. 38.
<https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/mss-williams-papers/38>

This Document is brought to you for free and open access by the Manuscripts Division at Scholars Junction. It has been accepted for inclusion in Daniel Williams Papers by an authorized administrator of Scholars Junction. For more information, please contact scholcomm@msstate.libanswers.com.

Madison, Mississippi,

September 29th. 1913.

J. D. Banks,

Kirbyville, Texas,

in re W. L. Douglass Will

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing herewith the letters that you sent me for information the above matter. I have read them through thoroughly and sent them to my mother at Dry Grove who also read them and returned to me. She does not know what to do and appeals to me to help her. I frankly admit that I do not see that she could have any claim whatever unless there could be some proof to show that undue influence or duress or fraud was practiced in the making of the last will. I am bound to leave that matter to you as I knew nothing about it. I shall not change my mind upon the opinion expressed that there is nothing to be done to accrue to the good or benefit of my mother unless you know of something along the line suggested.

I leave it to you to ascertain about these matters.

Again thanking you for your interest in behalf of my mother

I am,

Yours truly,