Magee, Mississippi,

March 8th. 1913.

To The County Clerk,
Liberty County, Texas,

Dear Sir:-

I wish to obtain copy, certified, of the last will and testament of Judge William Douglas who recently died at Houston Texas. I understand that he was a resident of your county when he died and I take it that his last will and testament will be probated in your office. I enclose my check for $2.00 to cover the charges. If this is insufficient I will remit balance upon request. Please don't delay the copy of the Will, but let it come on.

Yours truly,

3/10/13

Mims Williams

Dear Sir,

The will of Mr Douglas has not as yet been filed in the Court for Probate therefore is not in my possession. Should it be filed I can then send you copy if you still desire - You can advise me accordingly by JWS Truly EDD Priest
