March 29th.1913.

Dear Mama:-

I have your several letters. I am always glad to get your letters, even if I do not write you very often. I have been quite busy all this week at Seminary and will continue busy for a long while. I mean for several weeks yet. I received the copy of Billie Douglas last will and testament and I enclose same to you. It is in due legal form and made in 1911. I doubt the likelihood of its being successfully attacked. I also enclose the letter from Dan Banks that you sent to me. I hope Mama that you are well and that you are taking good care of yourself these cool Spring mornings.

I cannot say when I will be able to see you. I hope to run our there soon.

With much love to all,

Your son,
