New Digital Collection at the National Agricultural Library

The National Agricultural Library has launched a new digital collection: Animal Welfare Act History Digital Collection. This is a full-text, fully searchable collection of documents focused on the legislative and regulatory history of the U.S. Animal Welfare Act. This “initial collection” is maintained by the Animal Welfare Information Center at the USDA’s National Agricultural Library with new content added regularly until historically complete and then amended as new documents are published.

Saunders Comprehensive Review for the NAVLE

By Patricia Schenck

Studying for the national board exam is easy with Saunders’ complete review book, filled with helpful review tools. In-depth coverage of the most crucial information in each of the major disciplines in veterinary medicine ensures that you have the best study companion available. Designed to follow NAVLE specifications, this review covers each species in detail. Make the most of your review time with the only review book and companion website study package targeted at helping you pass the NAVLE!
Research Consultations

Need help with your research? Contact the library to schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss search strategies, literature reviews, or anything pertaining to your research. The library is here to help! Contact Derek to set up a time to talk, dmarshall@library.msstate.edu.

Special Printing

Need a poster or banner printed for your presentation? The Digital Media Center can help. The Digital Media Center at the Mitchell Memorial Library offers printing in color or black and white on a variety of paper sizes and types. Check out the printing costs at http://lib.msstate.edu/documents/ or to place your order.

Research Guides

Your very own College of Veterinary Medicine Research Guide can be found at http://guides.library.msstate.edu/cvm.
