Sat. Morning

Hello Evelyn-

I am in a hurry and will have time for only a few words. w.c. This is Sat. morning and that means ironing morning for Clara. Mother has already ironed the rough ones but there are the starched ones yet.

What are you going to do this week end? I guess I will stay at home to - morrow, ha. for the S. J. C. closed yesterday. Lorene and a girl friend are going to spend the week end at Rileville at a Mrs. Keenes. They use to live near us. Mr. Keene is the Press-Scimitar carrier.

Papa wants 15,000 slips. He said he could have sold all Uncle Longo would have to sell one man that owns two big plantations said he would take 56,000. I guess there is no need of telling it now as he seems to have enough customers.

Well, I must go. Oh, I have only

Two more weeks of school. I am counting the days. I will be glad when I can count the hours!

Answer real soon. Excuse this brief note but as I have all ready said I am in a hurry.

Love

Clayra
