Senator Stennis of Mississippi,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

I will appreciate very much your mailing me a copy of your first address to the Senate yesterday.

Even from the brief, garbled report in our morning's paper
I know it is very fine. I would like permission to quote from it in talks I am making from time to time before our State civic organizations.

You will see from the attached clipping that we in Arkansas are trying to steal some of our politics from Mississippi. You Mississippi leaders are talking our Arkansas language.

Sincerely and cordially yours,

LW/c

Mr. [REDACTED]
Monticello, Arkansas

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

Thank you very much for your letter of March 5th.

As per your request, I am enclosing a copy of the Speech I delivered on the Floor of the Senate on March 4th entitled "Dismantling the Constitution", and I shall be glad to have you use any portion of it that you may see fit.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

U.S.S.
