Manual of Clinical Behavioral Medicine for Dogs and Cats

By Karen L. Overall

The veterinarian's reliable tool for helping clients resolve pet behavior problems! Written by well-known veterinary behavior specialist Dr. Karen Overall, this comprehensive resource explains the underlying causes of undesirable behaviors in dogs and cats and provides proven behavior modification techniques. A companion DVD offers five in-depth questionnaires to help you gather valuable information from clients, as well as 45 client instruction handouts and a 30-minute video demonstrating behavior modification techniques for clients to use with their pets. From digging and barking to biting and anxiety, and everything in between. Manual of Clinical Behavioral Medicine for Dogs and Cats has what you need to help clients manage their pet's behavior issues and live with them in harmony.

Workshops

Introduction to Mendeley

October 4, 2 pm (Online)

October 15, 4 pm (Online)

Mendeley is a citation manager that allows you to create your own personal database of references by importing records from research databases such as Scopus and others. MSU students, faculty, and staff have access to the Mendeley Institutional Edition. Learn how to build a Mendeley library, share references with other researchers, and use the plug-in to cite as you write.

Crafting the Winning Curriculum Vitae (CV)

October 5, 2 pm (Online)

The curriculum vitae (CV) is the document most often used during the academic job search and throughout an academic career. This workshop will provide strategies for developing a professional CV. A Survival Skills for Graduate Students/Practical Professor Workshop.

Online Success! Library Resources and Services for the Online Student

October 5, 2:30 pm (Online)

Are you new to online classes? Do you have assignments that require library resources but are unsure where to start? Help is here! Attend this brief but informative session on how to access the library resources most commonly used for distance education classes. You will learn how to search the online databases for journal articles, the online catalog for books, and how to utilize the Interlibrary Loan system to retrieve items not available through electronic access. There will also be time for any specific questions you may have about your library needs. A recording of the workshop will be made available to anyone who is unable to attend.

Getting the Most Out of Scopus

October 5, 4 pm (Online)

Scopus is a multidisciplinary database with strong coverage in sciences, engineering, and social sciences. This workshop will show advanced features of Scopus such as cited reference searching, setting up folders, creating search alerts, and maintaining a Scopus author page. Other search tips will be provided as well.

Workshops

Excel Formulas

October 6, 10 am (Online)

October 19, 11 am (Online)

This workshop will show you the most commonly used Microsoft Excel formulas and their functions.

Thesis and Dissertation Formatting

October 7, 9 am

October 11, 10:30 (Online)

October 27, 6 pm (Online)

This face to face workshop covers the submission process for format review and demonstrates how to use the automated templates to format MSU theses and dissertations to the requirements set forth in the standards for preparing theses and dissertations: 8th edition. These templates were designed to help an author organize and format their document with minimal effort so that their focus can be on the content of their document. Those who have already started writing or have already defended are welcome to bring their current documents (either on flash drive or email attachment) to start the process of placing their content into the template.

Where Should I Publish? How to Select the Right Journal

October 13, 2 pm

October 14, 2 pm (Online)

Determining where to publish your research is one of the most important decisions every scholar makes in their career. This workshop will cover how authors should go about selecting the right journal in which to publish their scholarship. We will include how to evaluate Open Access journals in that process. We will also cover how to avoid "predatory" journals.

Publishing 101: Navigating the Academic Publishing Process

October 25, 2 pm (Online)

This workshop provides an introduction to the academic publishing process. Topics covered include journal selection and avoiding predatory publishers, submission strategies, managing the relationship with editors and reviewers, and publishing best practices. A Survival Skills for Graduate Students/Practical Professor Workshop.
