Dear Cousin Emma:- I well assent Ella that I thought she sure played a mean trick on me I was the one that chattered home for her and then she did not come I had made my plans to stay until Saturday and she asks me to go home Friday so I told her I would and then had to come home all alone. My home folks did not look for me much until Saturday night I am sorry she got left. I certainly did enjoy my day with you all now it is your time to come so am going to look for you. With lots of love to you all remain your cousin Wm. Clark Bourwell
