ROOFERS AND SHEET METAL WORKERS
OUT OF TOWN WORK GIVEN PROMPT ATTENTION

WEST POINT, MISS Jan. 15th, 1949.

Dear Senator.,

Wish to express my appreciation of the work you are doing and of the uphill fight you are waging.

Please find Copy of mine to Robert Collier, editor of Colliers Weekly. Of course I know it will not do any good, but just can't keep out of the fight. These yankees do not realize what they are trying to do any more than they did before the Civil War. They are trying to turn loose forces that will destroy the U.S. as completely as any nation was ever destroyed. A Mongrel race in this land will not stand, but will crumble into dust. Would be better for an atomic war in which all would be destroyed than to have a mongrel race, even worse than Hayti or most of Mexico. The reason it will be worse is that we have more negroes than they, and I strictly know their minds and their objects.

I have an old book, expect you have read it, Kemper County Vindicated, by Judge James d. Lynch. Some good information in it. If you have not read it, it is yours for the asking.

beg pardon for taking up your time but just had to but in.

Your friend,

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

I appreciate greatly your letter of January 15th and treasure your kind words which are a source of encouragement to me. I also agree with your sentiments and just hope that we can make some headway in getting this thought accepted.

I appreciated your good letter to Collier's Weekly and hope that they will print it.

Thank you so much for your offer about the Kemper County book, but I have read this several times and have a copy of my own, although I don't know just where it is now.

I frequently remember the pleasant days and experiences that I had with you around West Point and would like so much to have another long chat with you. One of the burdens of this office is that a man is cut off from his friends without the proper chance to exchange thought with them and have the social hours that he would like. Anyway, I hope to see you next summer, and in the meantime, I want you to remember that I treasure your friendship and appreciate it greatly.

With all good wishes, I am

Your friend,

U. S. Senator
