Dear Senator:-

You will no doubt recall conversation my friend
Mr. [REDACTED] and I had with you several months ago regarding proposed Civil Rights Legislation.

I am enclosing an editorial from the pen of my friend, Mr. Crandal Mackey, of The Chronicle, a weekly newspaper of Arlington, Va., which I believe you will read with interest.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

I want to thank you very much for sending me the copy of the editorial entitled, "Segregation Laws", written by your friend, Mr. Crandal Mackey. This article contains some very sound thought on this very vital subject and I am giving it an important place in my files on civil rights legislation, where it will be of considerable benefit in the future.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

U. S. Senator
