

8-22-1894

Letter to To Whom it may Concern, August 22, 1894

John Marshall Stone

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/jms-letterbooks>

---

Preferred Citation

[Title], John Marshall Stone Collection. Congressional and Political Research Center, Mississippi State University Libraries.

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the John Marshall Stone Correspondence Collection at Scholars Junction. It has been accepted for inclusion in Letterbooks by an authorized administrator of Scholars Junction. For more information, please contact scholcomm@msstate.libanswers.com.

August 22nd, 1894.

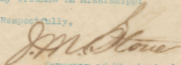

To Whom it may Concern:-

I desire to commend to the kind offices of all to whom this writing may be presented, my young friend, Miss Louisa Sims, of the City of Aberdeen, State of Mississippi, United States of America, who will shortly sail for Berlin, Germany.

Miss Sims is well known to me, and as she goes abroad she carries with her my unqualified commendation. She is not only a most accomplished young lady, but is one of the worthiest and most deserving I have ever known, and socially she has no superior in the history of the State. She is the daughter of Hon. W. C. Sims, of this State, whom I have known for many years, and who is one of our worthiest and best citizens, and my almost life long friend.

May I ask, for this young lady, the courteous, kind and tender care of all with whom she may meet, with the assurance that any favors extended to her will be most worthily bestowed, and gratefully appreciated by her, as well as by her many friends in Mississippi.

Respectfully,

J. M. Stone
Governor of Mississippi.