

1960

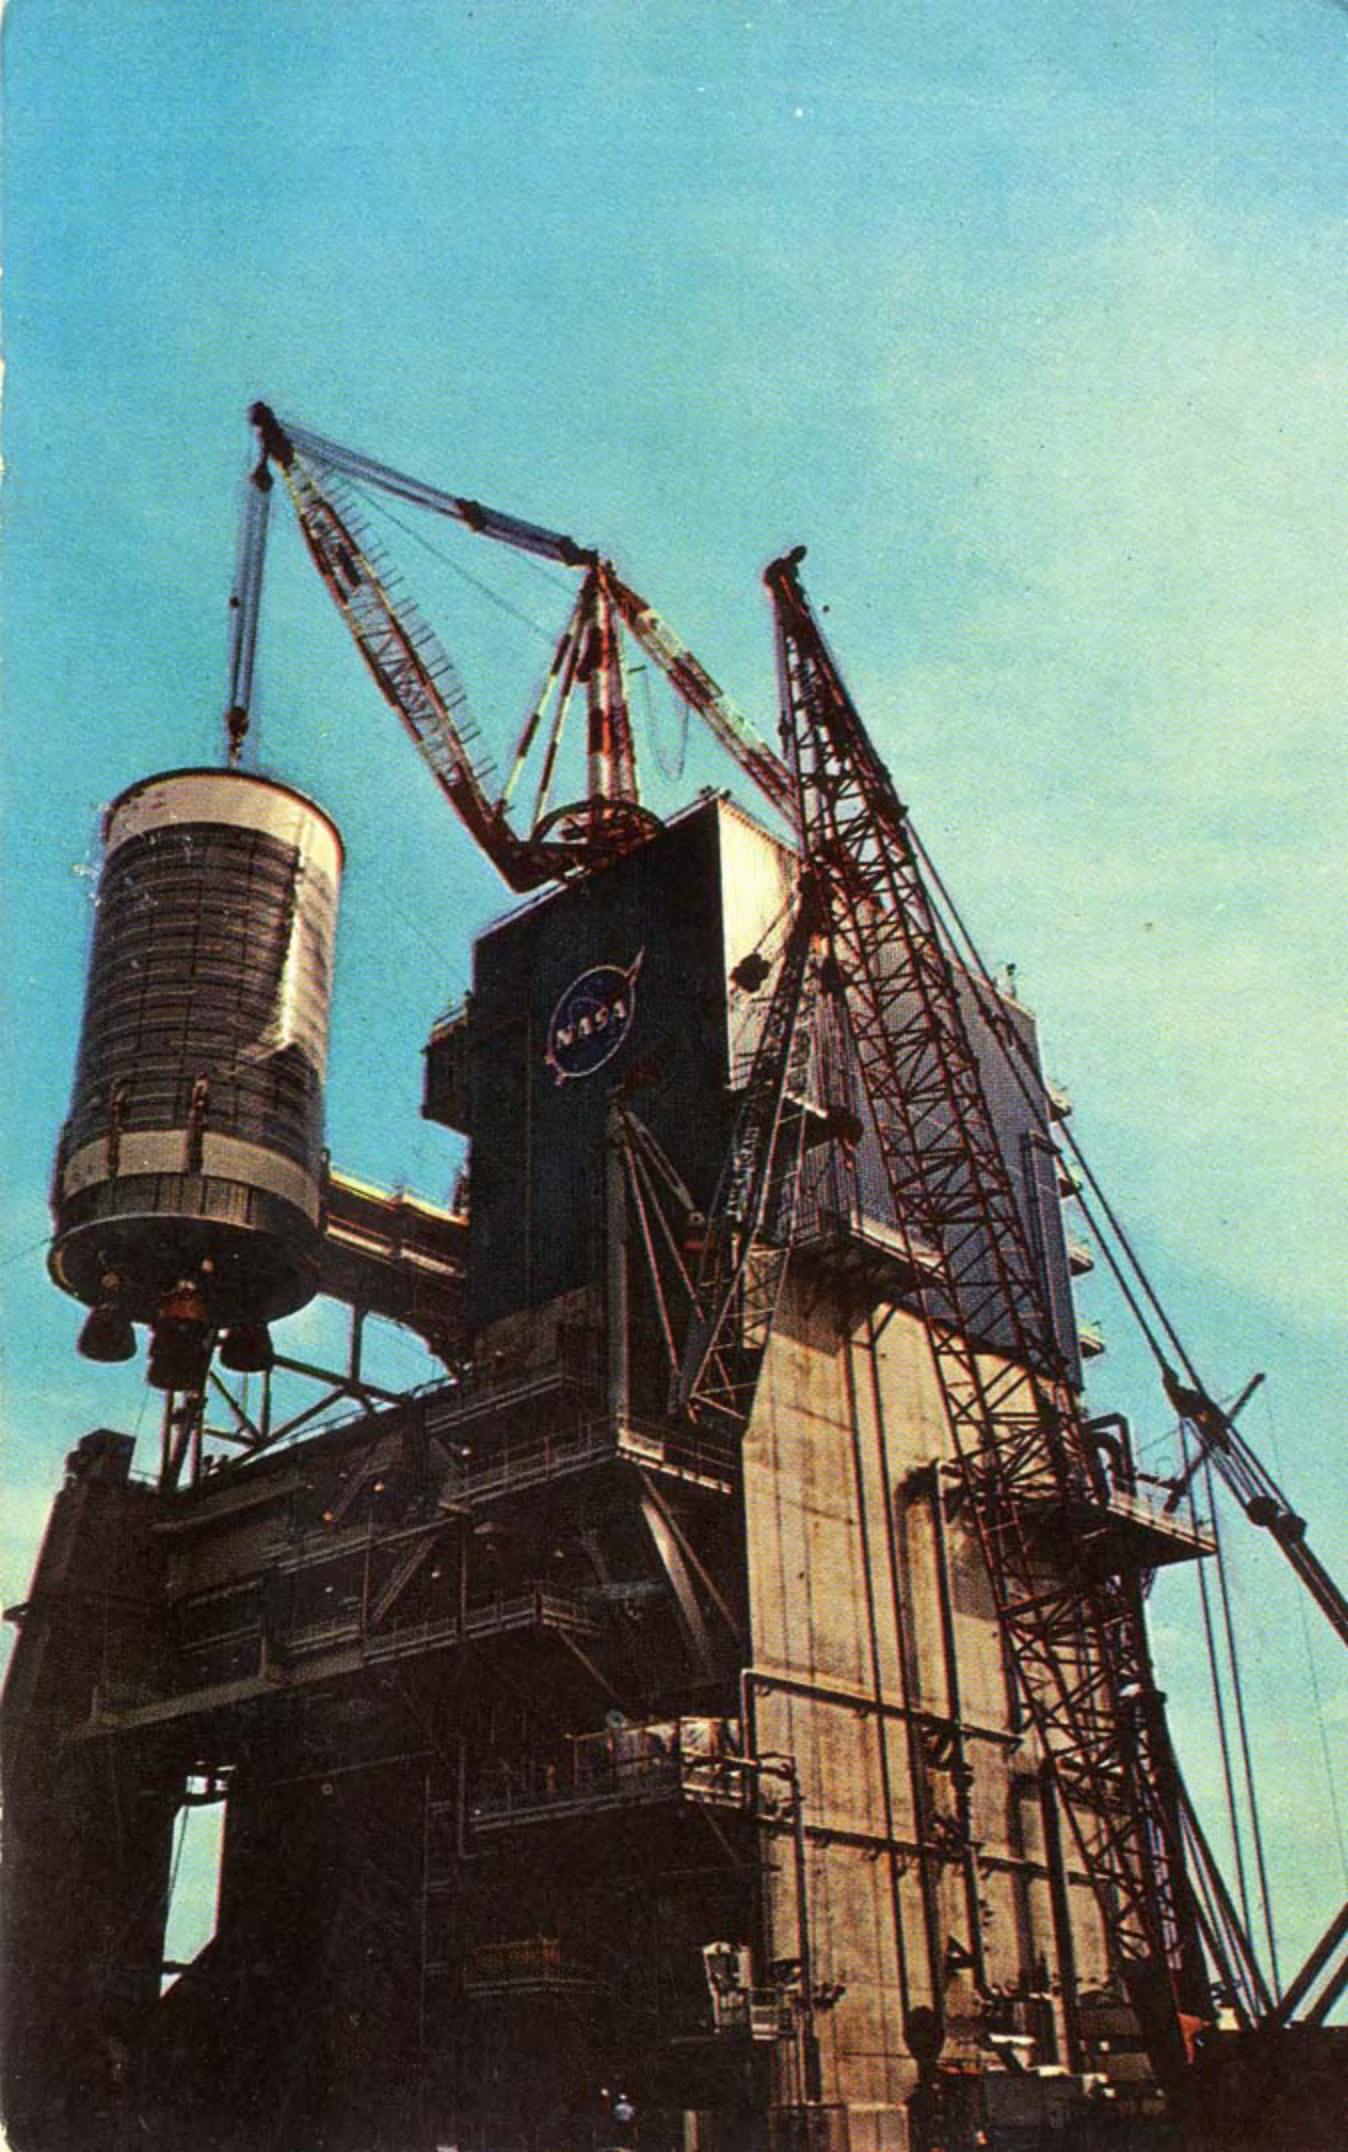

NASA S-II-T Being Lowered Into the Test Stand at NASA's Mississippi Test Facility in Hancock County, Mississippi

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/mss-lampton-images-ms-coast>

Recommended Citation

Lucius Marion Lampton, MD Historical Images Collection, Special Collections Department, Mississippi State University

This Postcard is brought to you for free and open access by the Mississippi Photographs and Postcards at Scholars Junction. It has been accepted for inclusion in Mississippi Coast Region by an authorized administrator of Scholars Junction. For more information, please contact scholcomm@msstate.libanswers.com.

BAY ST. LOUIS, Miss. — The all-systems test model of the S-II (second stage of the Saturn V space vehicle), known as the S-II-T, is lowered into its test stand at NASA's Mississippi Test Facility in Hancock County, Mississippi, where it was first static fired April 23, 1966. From Mississippi, the S-II flight stages will be shipped by barge to Cape Kennedy, Florida for launch.

Official NASA Photo

P70488

POST CARD

..... Gulf Coast News Company, Inc., Gulfport, Miss.....

 Plastichrome[®]
by COLOURPICTURE
BOSTON, MASS. 02130