

10-12-1894

Letter to To Whom it may Concern, October 12, 1894

John Marshall Stone

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarsjunction.msstate.edu/jms-letterbooks>

Preferred Citation

[Title], John Marshall Stone Collection. Congressional and Political Research Center, Mississippi State University Libraries.

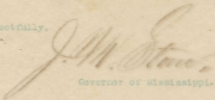

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the John Marshall Stone Correspondence Collection at Scholars Junction. It has been accepted for inclusion in Letterbooks by an authorized administrator of Scholars Junction. For more information, please contact scholcomm@msstate.libanswers.com.

October 13th. 1894.

Dear Mr. Bay Commr: -

It gives me pleasure to commend to the kind offices of all to whom this writing may be presented, Miss Rebecca Williams, of Alabama, whom I have known most favorably for several years. She is a young lady of great social worth, of superior literary attainments, and highly accomplished in music both instrumental and vocal. With nature's gifts, it has been so trained and cultivated that, as a vocalist, she has few equals and perhaps no superior in the South. It is with perfect confidence that I commend Miss Williams, both as a performer and teacher of music, instrumental and vocal; but specially accomplished as a vocalist.

Respectfully,

J. M. Stone,
Governor of Mississippi.