Inspections

The Club as a whole or by Committee shall inspect the farm on which they meet, & subject its condition and management to candid criticism approving, or objecting, to particular points, & making such suggestions as they deem proper. Each member shall make a separate & independent estimates of the probable yield per acre of each crop & these estimates shall be filed for reference & compared with actual results.

During the main crop months a Visiting Committee, shall be appointed, so that the Farm of each member may be inspected, & reports made to the * Club, It is desirable & important that this work of inspection should be well done, as it improves both Farmer & Inspector. In the months of June, July, August & September each Farm will be inspected.

Conducting Experiments

Each member of the Club shall conduct some experiment or make some observation, or take charge of some department with view to investigate & report on same. The President shall assign the particular duty of each member at the first or second meeting of the club, after its organization is complete, at the January meeting & it shall be his duty to inform each member, specifically of the part assigned him. The members will co-operate in the investigation of any subject proposed by any of the members.
