Dear Mama -

I have just talked with Crisler & he advises that Lammie may use either the Hubbard or the Coopers Well water water to good advantage. He so misunderstands that both waters are about the same.

He suggests that he use some liquid food that usually agree with him, when he is ready to eat something -

Puttermilk or its Equivalent.

Let me hear everyday how Lammie is getting along.

With much love -

Hurriedly
Yours
Mama.
