Freeport Sept 5, 1864

Capt. J. P. Darden

D. S. S.

I have requested Mr. Mead to call & see you about the cotton he hauled away. He tells me he only got 25 bales. When at your house I examined the cotton & found seven bales missing. I thought that if Mead could get rope he could haul away 34 bales, that is the no I put down in my memorandum book. He called on me & informed me he could get no bagging or rope, & requested me to let him have cotton near Rodney, which I did. I hope he will make it satisfactory with you.
