December 18th, 1894.

Hon. G. O. Bekford,

U. S. Consul,

Kingston, Jamaica.

My dear Sir:-

This will introduce to you Mr. Frank C. Englesing, of Port Gibson, Claiborne County, Miss., one of the best and most advanced communities in the State, and he bears testimonials from the best citizens of that good little city. He is a young gentleman of great respectability, and enjoys the entire confidence of the people of the community in which he resides and where he is best known.

Mr. Englesing will call upon you at an early day, and I take great pleasure in commending him to your kind offices. Any courtesy extended to him will be duly appreciated by himself, his many friends, and by

Your friend and

obedient servant,

Governor of Mississippi.
