Modern OBJECTIVES in Youth Development of the Cooperative Extension Service

- 1. Supply knowledge, skills, and attitudes for a satisfying farm and family life.
- 2. Educate parents and communities, together with the supervisors and staff, for the general development of youth.
- 3. Develop leadership talents and abilities in selected farm-orientated activities.
- 4. Appreciate the value of research and have suitable methods of making decisions and solving problems.
- 5. Recognize the importance of scientific agriculture and farm economics and the application in our daily activities.
- 6. Foster civic participation in agriculture, farm activities, and related fields and recognize the need for a continuing education.
- 7. Appreciate history, civilization, cooperation and make wise use of natural resources.
- 8. Cultivate habits of leadership, citizenship, responsibility and insight in leisure time.
- 9. Strengthen personal character and philosophy of life based on leading and following ideas.
- 10. Gain culture, attitudes, and understanding for working cooperatively with others.
