Dry Grove th Mar 20 - 1913

To Mrs John Davis, & Joe Dayton,
Texas,

I have heard that Cousin Billie Douglas made a will before his death leaving all he owned to you and his Negro Jockey, well he had as right to give as he wanted as it was his, but he had told me that he would provide for me in my old age, we were children together his Mother & Father died and gave their children to my Father his Mother's brother and I always thought Billie looked on me as a sister, as I had no brother, and I write you to find out all about his death how long was he sick and what disease did he have that caused his death, where was he living I heard that he died in a Sanatorium in Houston, Texas, I have a blind sister in the home called Sheltering Arms Houston Texas, Please let me hear from you, and send me the Negro Jockey address as I have never heard his name and would like to know With best wishes, from Billie's Cousin Jennie Williams,
