Dear Doctor,

Am sending my horse out for a little run on your pasture, as you were good enough to say it would be all right. Leave for Bayou Sara to-night, & will be in New Orleans Saturday morning. Hope "Mick" won't give you any trouble, & if you can spare him a little corn now & then I certainly appreciate it. Will look up W.R. Warner & Co on Saturday & will let you know what they say. Hope Mims is better, give your wife & Mims my best love. Yours sincerely
Tom
