MISS.

Gen. S. D. Lee,
A. & M. College,
Starkville,
Miss.

President A. M. College, Starbuckville, Miss.

Dear General,

For some time there has existed in your school a secret fraternity, which is marking a great corruption. It was the damnable influence of this organization that lead, to so much bitterness in the Senior class last year. Its slimy fingers have already grasped the throat of the present Senior class, and its evil influence is corrupting both literary societies.
These secret and traitorous violators of their pledge recognize no merit and acknowledge no claims outside of their unprincipled fraternity. It is too far gone to be nipped in the bud, but you can seriously cripple it by striking at its root.

However, do not try to reach it through the vigilance committee.

You have a great work before you in this connection, and already a few of your best boys are struggling against this ever-shifting evil. May God help you, is my prayer.

Yours,
Alumnus.
