Jackson, Miss. March 17th. 1895.

R. B. May, Esq.,

McCook City, Miss.

My dear Sir:-

Your very kind note of the 15th. instant has been received, and I write to thank you heartily for encouragement and support. I had received the copy of your paper, "The Enterprise", which you had so kindly mailed to me, and read the editorial on my announcement with great pleasure, and for it you have my most grateful thanks.

I am receiving such encouragement from different parts of the state and the outlook seems quite favorable.

Again thanking you, and inclosing the subscription price for your paper, I am your obliged and obedient servant,

(Personal)
