Jackson, Miss. March 17th. 1856.

Rev. Dr. Hogen,

Greenville, Miss.

Reverend and dear Sir-

Remembering your kind letter to me during a former contest for United States Senator, which, by the way, the stress of official business, together with the incessant correspondence at that time, prevented the acknowledgment it so justly deserved at my hands, I desire to draw your attention to my candidacy for a seat in the United States Senate, and to solicit your sympathy and kind offices in that respect.

You are familiar with ~~my~~ views on the questions which will interest the voters in approaching canvass, and I am sure you can be of great service to me in presenting them to those with whom you come in contact. I have always had many friends in your city and county; among them many of your truest and best people, and I trust nothing has occurred whereby this friendship has been forfeited.

Hoping that I may be favored with an early, and if it please you, a favorable response; and thanking you for your very kind letter to which I have referred, I have the honor to be, Doctor,

Your obliged and obedient servant,
