Jackson, Miss. March 19th. 1855.

Hon. J. S. Eaton,

Taylorville, Miss.

My dear Sir:-

As you already know I am a candidate before the next session of the Legislature for a seat in the United States Senate, and now write to solicit your support. You have known me long, and you are familiar with my political and official course; and you also know my present views upon the issues which it seems must be discussed in the coming canvass. Taking me as I am, I shall be exceedingly pleased to know that I may have your support. I have heard it stated that you would be in the next legislature; if so you will be in a position to render me material service, and I trust that the statement is true, and that I may still count you among my friends and supporters.

My candidacy is seemingly being well received, and I am receiving much encouragement from all parts of the state. The popalists, and those of extreme silver views, are not among my supporters.

Trusting that you will favor me with an early reply, I must be permitted to subscribe myself, as heretofore,

Your Friend,

Personal.
