The President,
Agrl. College,
Agricultural College, Miss.

Dear Sir:-

The Farm Journal approves the purpose of Agricultural Colleges and appreciates the good work they have already done. For this reason we shall print in our December issue a brief outline of what these institutions are doing for farmers' sons and daughters and for agricultural advancement in general.

You can help us, help yourselves and the cause, by sending us a catalogue, circular of special short courses or personal letter about your work. If you have recent photographs of buildings, etc., we might be able to use a limited number for illustration.

A prompt response will oblige us.

Respectfully,
Wilmer Atkinson Co.
