Agul College.

Gov. Storr,
Dear Sir,

Myamma tells me
that you have expelled
me from the College Gov I am sorry to my heart that I
left the College the season I did it I was home sick and you
hasing me upon

stage which I thought was a disgrace which it was.

God if you will allow me to come back one more I will assure you that I will always
do the right thing,
and never give you any trouble I am so sorry that I acted as I did and I beg your pardon I am
not allowed back again
and you did your part as the President for trying me and putting

such a light punishment on me but as I was home sick and wanted to come home I think you ought to give me one more
chance to be a good
boy and to study
hard and keep out
of mischief which I will faithfully promise hoping that you
will consider the matter and permit
me to return on these promises

Hoping to hear from you soon
I remain one of your boys.

B. H. Cheser.
