April 5th. 1895.

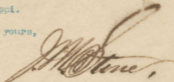

Hon. J. S. Carter,

Collector Internal Revenue.

Dear Sir:-

My young friend, Mr. A. R. Govan, of this State, and a resident of No. 20th City, desires a position with you which his application will more definitely explain, and I beg to commend him to your kind offices, and his application to your favorable consideration. He is a worthy young man, of excellent family, being a son of our present Honorable Secretary of State, Hon. Geo. M. Govan. He is intelligent, well educated, of strictly sober and industrious habits, reliable and trustworthy in every way, and if you can find a place for him in the service of your department, he will render faithful and efficient service, and you will gratify his many friends in Mississippi.

Respectfully yours,

Governor of Mississippi.
