Dearest Julie,

France
Jan. 20, 1945

As usual I'll open with an apology for not writing in so long, but, as the family has probably well be that way from now on the move again. There for some reason your mail has been coming through much better than that from the rest of the family. The lovely Luma and how you got to me on exactly the right date - one month late, however, Jan. 25th. It meant just as much then, though, as it would have earlier. I've also gotten air mail written the 5th & 15th to say nothing of one written Oct. 26. It's the most aggravating thing in the world to get one letter only 10 or 12 days old & another at the same time 3 months old. - Enjoyed your Luma letter so very much. Made me feel as if I was right there with all of you. I could just see you all at church, opening gifts, and eating dinner. Made me feel so good to know Dad & Mom had something special to plan for. Hope it helped make Luma happier & more enjoyable by doing something for someone.
