Dearest Juli,
Well, I got my first mail on this today. Your Valentines came, and I appreciate it so much, Jules. You don't forget any holidays or special events of any kind, do you. You win hands down for the most thoughtful person in my class. Speaking of Valentines, you should see some of the ones my squad cooked up. One night about two weeks ago we all went on a spree retouching drawings them on V-mail. Some very original ones and also some cute poetry resulted. But some of them were serious. All my mail caught up with me at once as usual. I got 17 letters one night last week. I've received your V-mail of Dec. 5, his mail of Jan. 5, 14 & 15, and V-mail of the 26th, and that, all within the last week. I believe it's coming through better than it was - especially this mail. Thanks a million for looking so hard for Casanova - any kind I could do. You have been too good about doing this for me, Jules. Love you.
