April 7th. 1888.

Mr. Abijah Hunt,

Rolling Fork, Miss.

Dear Sir:-

I take the liberty of addressing you on the subject of my candidacy for a seat in the Senate of the United States for the term beginning on the 4th. of March, 1889, and of soliciting your support. I have been delayed in my purpose to write you by an unusual press of official business that could not be neglected or postponed, otherwise I should have written you earlier.

While my personal acquaintance with you is but limited, I feel that you are sufficiently acquainted with my political and official history to enable you to determine whether I should be trusted with the duties and responsibilities of the high position for which I am asking your support.

If you can aid me with your influence in your section of the State and in the legislature I assure you that the same will be greatly appreciated; and trusting that I may be favored with an early response, I am

Very truly yours,
