Dearest Sis,

France
Feb. 4, 1945

Got your swell V-mail of Dec. 3, and enjoyed it a lot, even if it was two months old. All the mail we've been getting the last few days has been about that old. Hope some more recent mail starts coming in soon. Did get a letter from the family saying that they had heard from me since I got over here. Believe I forgot it - when is Mom's birthday. I think it's sometime this month, so please let me know right away. The only time I got near a radio in Eng. I listened to the Armed Forces Program strictly Yankee, so I can't tell you anything about V.B.C. We got a big bomb or two this morning we were pulling out, but none close. If you still have those red points that canned meat comes good. Also, if you get a few packs of smoke ahead, they would help out. If you don't have enough for yourself, then forget it. Bye bye!
