Miss A. M. Kellye Feb'y 7, 1901.
To the Hon. President and members of the Faculty Gentlemen:

For work previously done as editor of the "Reflector" for the first term of this session, I respectfully ask that I may be excused from ^{future} records, address. Ofcourse it has been customary heretofore that an editor of the "Reflector" is excused from one address provided he serve in that capacity the entire session; but I only served one term, due to the fact that the Society, thinking that I would not return to the college, elected another editor.

However, I think I did enough work that one term to be more than equivalent to an address.

Now if I were not, to some considerable degree, behind in my studies, I would not ask to be excused from this work, notwithstanding the work I did for the "Reflector"; but under the present circumstances I beg to be excused.

Yours
Sincerely

Very respt.,
R. H. Adams.

Your sincerely,
