For Stone Jackson Miss
Dear Friend Sept 26 1899

Some time ago I advised my nephew R. J. Handings to go to the A & M College to get the practical training there & because you being at the head, I felt satisfied that you would take a special interest in a relation of mine. He is there now & I entrust him to your care. He is a country boy of no bad habits & is anxious & willing to acquire a practical education. I thank you in advance for any kindness you may show him

Young Val. Baldwin will go to your school as soon as he recovers from an attack of slow fever. His mother would like to have him assigned to James' room. They ~~are~~^{are} neighbors boys

Your friends miss your presence from our midst, & all wish you success health & happiness

I am your friend
R. J. Harding
