November 27, 1896.

Mess. Dillard & Coffin,

Memphis, Tenn.

Gentlemen:-

I have lost the run of business and business men in Memphis and therefore send you this little order with request that you attend to it for me, and have the goods shipped to me at Iuka, Miss., to wit:

1 Ton Cotton seed HULLS, baled,

1/2 " Cotton seed meal.

I will be obliged to you if you will have the freight prepaid and the bill sent here to me, and I will remit as you may direct.

Very truly yours,

J. M. Stone.
