Dear Harold.

Stokes telegraphed Della last night - that he would be home tomorrow (Sunday). I would be glad if you and Roger could come down to see him.

They gave him a rigid examination - he thinks he passed all right - he did not say how long he would be at home, but suppose he will stay a few days - possibly longer. as his children in Baton Rouge will meet him here.

Marie Webb wrote me
she would come if well
enough to stand the trip.
Perhaps you can arrange to come with her.

Gee Carolyn I am real
proud of her scholar ship
I have read with pleasure
about her popularity etc.

Hope you are better
and can come down with Marie. Love to all.

Write soon to Mother.
