Dear Sir

I had a letter from my son Saturday saying he was required to work
three evenings in each week.

He said this was required
of the students of taking the Preparatory course.

I would rather he should do no work
"only as he wishes to do so

I want him to put in his time studying

I wish you to see he does not work regular.

He is a very delicate boy, He never had
very good health,
until lately.

Benjamin will work
whenever he feel's

like

He was always been very obedient boy and good boy

to work

I do not want

you to think I do not want my boy
to work at all.

I want him to work when he has nothing else to do.

He complains of not being quite well at times when he is required to work.

He said he could work as he has been but would rather study more.

He is a boy that never will complain about any thing
unless it is very necessary.

Hoping you will do as I have asked I am yours
R B Sarnes
