ANN ARBOR, MICH., March 2, 1896

President of Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical College, Starkville, Miss

Dear Sir:-

If you should have occasion to make any appointments in philosophy or psychology at your college the coming year, will you kindly consider my reference and qualifications for a position.

I graduated at Brown University in 1893, receiving A.M. in 1895, after graduate work in philosophy, and taught at the same institution during '95-'96.
The following year I obtained a fellowship at Cornell, Ph.D. in 1898, and have since had nearly two years experience as instructor in philosophy at the University of Michigan.

I am able to refer you to Prof. E. B. Delabare of Brown,

ANN ARBOR. MICH., 189

James Seth of Edinburgh, E. B. Fitchum and E. Creighton of Cornell, R. M. Wesley and Alfred Lloyd of the University of Michigan and Dr E. Benjamin Andrews, Superintendent of Schools at Chicago.

Yours truly
Carl G. Tower
