— JOHN H. WELLBORN, —

LAND AGENT AND ACTING COUNTY SURVEYOR.

A. V. M. College, Miss.

Dear Sir: In my rounds over the county I have come upon lands belonging to the College. One instance I noticed that the College land had been badly depredated upon by timbermen. If these lands are for sale in this and other counties, and you can put them in my hands as agent, I will be glad to look them up, map them out, and classify them. It seems to me that something like this should be done as these lands are not watched after by any one at present, and those that have valuable timber are liable to suffer heavy loss by depredation of timbermen.

Yours truly,
J. H. Wellborn.

— JOHN H. WELLBORN, —
LAND AGENT AND ACTING COUNTY SURVEYOR.

Gov. J. M. Stone
Agr. College, Miss. Starkville, Miss., Dec 5 1897.

Dear Sir: Referring to a letter that you wrote me some time ago in reference to the College lands, I beg to say, that I spoke to Col. Montgomery, as you requested me, and learned from him that he had not seen the College attorneys about the matter, but expressed the hope that he would see them soon. Whenever the proper action is taken, I shall be glad to confer with you and map out and get in shape for sale the scattering lands that the College has in this and adjoining counties.

Yours truly,
J. H. Wellborn.
